

Sunday Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday

March 2019

The school and community department at Koti ni Eden conduct meetings with CTC parents in surrounding villages. These meetings are equipping on a the parents to take hands with the school, by raising their children to follow the ways of God. 3

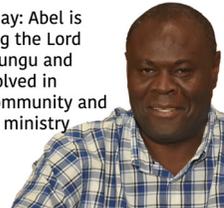

Pray for Jordan and Elizabeth Mackley whose second baby is due today. Thank the Lord for the luxury to share this special event with the grandparents, family and friends in South Africa. Pray for Lilly who from now on, has to adjust to another sibling in the house. 4

Birthdays: Gerrit is involved in the carpentry and business initiative of FCE at Koti ni Eden. 5

Birthdays: Elizabeth is at present with her parents and her husband in South Africa. 6

FCE is initiating outreaches to North Africa later this year and to Europe in April. Ask the Lord for clear directions. Pray for Riette as she applies for visas in the different countries. We need the Lord's favour with these applications. 7

1 Birthdays: Abel is serving the Lord at Kalungu and is involved in the community and men's ministry. 2

Neels flies to Johannesburg after extensive planning meetings for the future of FCE at the training centres in Zambia and Malawi and after a visit to the East to meet with friends. Anita will join him and they will have a break-away for a few days. 2

Managers and staff at the FCE King's Highway guesthouse and Rest camps: Gert and Roy (Somerset West), Etienne (Koti ni Eden), Temwani (Kalungu) and Este (Malawi). They not only serve guests from abroad, but also the FCE staff travel between the training centres. 10

Elma d T is undergoing treatment for cancer. She declares God as her Healer. Join us as we surround her with our faith and our prayers. Pray that His peace will surpass all understanding and pray for Piet who faithfully stands alongside her. 11

FCE staff is involved in the in-service training of the teachers of Rabboni and Eagles Nest Christian Schools in Brits. Thank God for these teachers who are willing to be equipped to teach from God's perspective and to make Him known through their subject areas. 12

Birthdays: Chanda Mubanga is a teacher at the CTC at Koti ni Eden. 13

Neels and Anita fly to Cape Town where Neels will be involved in the DMT course and will start planning his trip to Europe in April. Pray for their health as travelling is tiring. Pray for finances that will enable him to be versatile and available. 14

Continue to pray for Piet, Thinus and Neels from the UFCE and interest groups from Christian schools who are investigating to expand the training of teachers for Christ-centred Education in Africa. 15

Joseph is designing a number of systems to help UFCE with moving forward into a more mobile model for training. Please pray for wisdom and creativity as he designs these. He also needs creative plans to uproot the IT cables and replace the computer networks. 16

Please pray for the extension of work and study permits. If we do not receive it in time, our staff cannot continue to serve the Lord in Zambia and Malawi. Pray for Jordan and Thea who had to leave these countries - ask the Lord to make a way for them. 17

CTC learners write internal exams 18 - 28th March. Pray the Lord to calm their hearts that they will enjoy sharing what they have learned. Pray for the teachers to continue to trust God for guidance and a revelation of Himself and His love to the children. 18

Theft is increasing at Koti ni Eden lately. Especially trees are being stolen from the nursery. Stand with us in prayer. Thank the Lord that the Agricultural training is taking momentum. Students' plots and farm fields are looking promising. 19

Pray for the protection of the children in the communities and school where we serve. In Wolseley, Elma Britz is using every opportunity to make children aware of addiction and sexual immorality. Join us as we bring our children to God. 20

Guidance for the Malawi Team with strategies to reach the community of Thekero. Ask that the Lord will really challenge people about the sincerity of their hearts before Him. Pray that the Lordship of Christ will manifest itself in men, women and children. 21

Praise the Lord for the opportunity that the learners at the CTC had to meet some of the Chinese people who are building the dam. Greta and her class visited the construction premises and were informed about the procedures. Continue to pray for good relationships. 22

Today is the conclusion of DMT(F) courses at Wolseley, Kalungu, Malawi. Trust the Holy Spirit to continue with the work that He started in them, as we send them out as worthy disciples. 23

Pray for the financial and other needs of our CTC school at Koti ni Eden to be met. The photocopier needs to be fixed and there are many other challenges for our teachers and parents in providing in all the children's needs. 24

Birthdays: Grace Nakazwe is a teacher at the CTC at Koti ni Eden. 25

Pray for the staff at Kalungu who lately have been experiencing a strong resistance against the Word of God, questioning its Authority. Pray that the Holy Spirit will break down the strongholds and the lies and will stir up a hunger and a thirst after the Lord. 26

Today the team at Malawi will receive a group of 10 students and lecturers from Mzuzu. They are part of a Bible College and are coming for a retreat/team building. Pray that the Lord will encourage and refresh them and that they will be drawn unto Him. 27

Thank the Lord for the many FCE supporters who are carrying us through this process of renewing, reorientation, re-establishing. Thank you for words of encouragement and warning, for financial support and a willingness to step out in faith with us. 28

Some of the children of Amazing Grace Ministries are back at Bushfire in Uganda to continue with their schooling. FCE are grateful to be able to pay the school fees of some of the children. Praise the Lord for the donors and pray for the teachers at Bushfire. 29

Pray for the leaders and staff at Koti ni Eden who daily face the challenges to start cutting trees, breaking down structures, informing the surrounding communities about the changes in the future. Ask God to bring peace and acceptance. 30

FCE is sad to announce that Chon-chon, who served for many years in the kitchen, are leaving us. She is convinced that the Lord wants to use her in a community of believers in Zambia. FCE was blessed by her many talents and it is not easy to let her go. 31
