Pray for Etienne and Sumari who are on their way from SA via Namibia to Zambia. Ask the Lord to protect them on the road. Sumi's father passed away unexpectedly in February. Thank the Lord that they were able to attend the memorial service and ask the Lord to comfort her and her family. 2

Pray for The DMT students and coordinators from Gateway (Koti ni Eden) Zambia, who are going on an outreach in the vicinity in order to train the students in spiritual warfare, to pray on sight with insight and to reach out in love and compassion to people they come across. 3

Praise the Lord that Elma Britz recovered from lymphoma. The doctors are satisfied with her progress. Pray as lately she has been diagnosed with melanoma. This came unexpectedly and as a shock. Pray that she will stand in faith and trust Him as God her Healer. 4

It is the conclusion of the Discipleship training at Wolseley. Thank the Lord for a making Himself known to them through His word and trust the Holy Spirit to guide them as they return to their homes and work places. Pray that in faith they will continue to walk in the Spirit. 5

Please pray for Carel, Solem and Abigail's applications for visas/permits for Zimbabwe. It is for missionaries to find ways to enter and stay in countries legally. Ask God to intervene supernaturally as He is the only One who can open this door. Pray for faith, trust and provision. 7

Thank the Lord for Eunice's recovery after an operation in Zambia. She is back in Zimbabwe to build relationships and to encourage and serve the people of her nation. Pray for His provision and protection as it is very demanding to operate in Zimbabwe. 8

Demands on teachers have increased tremendously. Thank the Lord for Reinette and Bernice who are at Eagles Nest, in Polokwane, to encourage the teachers to focus on Jesus as the master teacher and to inspire them to be faithful in making Christ known to the learners. 9

It is possible to continue with children's ministry in Malawi as the schools are open. Pray fresh ways to reach out to the children and to meet some of their spiritual needs. Pray for the weekly Friday meetings with a youth group. Pray for a desire in them to partake in the Discipleship course. 10

Pray for a supernatural intervention in the process to register the Gateway School at Koti ni Eden. Pray for sound relationships with officials from the department of education. Ask for wisdom to not only train the learners, but to guide the parents to take ownership of their children's education. 11

Today is the conclusion of the DMT training at Gateway (Koti ni Eden) in Zambia. We rejoice with the angels in heaven as all the students committed their lives to Christ. Praise Him for this opportunity to disciple them in the ways of the Lord and to prepare them for a future with Christ. 12

In the new we are aware that the Lord is making us part of His plan to disciple nations. In order to make our DMT course more accessible we are preparing it on-line. Pray as most of the staff enrolled in the on-line course to prepare them to use this tool efficiently in the future. 14

Thank the Lord that Jannie recovered from Covid and Elise from malaria. They traveling to the different training centres to give guidance and advice as everyone is in the process to settle into the new. Pray for wisdom, compassion and words of encouragement. 15

The Lord for providing a house for Dirk and Lize on a farm from where they can launch the Daniel Consult. Pray for ministry opportunity to open to them. They are invited by a farmer to reach out to his workers. Thank the Lord for farmers who invest in their workers spiritual welfare. 16

As we visited families and friends during the summer holidays, we became aware that many are tired and stressed. Please pray for the emotional and mental health of our loved ones. Pray that we as Christians will be part of the solution in bringing the presence of God into needy situations. 17

Thank the Lord for the place in Okahandja that Melvin and Loretta found stay. They serve in the soup kitchens in the needy communities. Pray for opportunities to reach the local people for Christ and to disciple them through friendship evangelism. 18

Thank the Lord for the opportunity for Reinette and Bernice to be involved in in-service training with the Foundation Phase teachers at Eagles Nest every Tuesday. Pray for Willie, Maryke and Carmen who have been appointed as teachers at Eagles Nest. 19

25 children from AGCM South Sudan have returned to Bushfire School in Uganda. 16 children remained with Simon in South Sudan. Thank the Lord for His provision through donors and pray for favour on their crops as they make the most of opportunities to farm for food security. 20

Sulene and Tanya are continuing with their training through AIFC to grow in practical Christ-centred counselling skills. Praise God for His provision for their studies and ask Him to make them wise and discerning in using these skills for His glory in making disciples. 21

Georg and Karin Paul are venturing into creating a home for fatherless children in Polokwane. Pray as they seek the Lord for guidance and His strategy. Ask God to give them faith and to provide in wisdom, finances and good relationships. 22

Today we remember in prayer those who serve in FCE who cannot be mentioned. "May the praise of God be in their mouths and a double-edged sword in their hands" (Ps 149:6) Pray for protection and perseverance. 23

Elma Britz is moving to a retirement village in Ficksburg, close to her family. For many years she had been ministering in and serving the local communities surrounding Wolseley. Pray as it is tough for her to leave and trust the Lord for strength to continue to serve Him. 24

Pray for volunteers and for Jordan and Francois to cross borders into Malawi to help Alhurt and Este to complete the building projects. Also pray for Spencer and Ida from Malawi who are taking time out to seek the Lord for the next step in their ministry. 25

Thank the Lord for Bart and Marthe's involvement at the DMT-course at Wolseley. Pray for a safe flight back to Holland from where they will operate in the future. They are playing a major role in the on-line training. Pray for them to adjust easily into their new environment in their home country. 26

Piet and Elma du Toit are moving into a house in Nelspruit. From there they will continue to take part as coordinators of the DMT-courses and continue to plan to develop short online courses to train teachers. 28

Pray for Boet and Celia, James and Lindie who manage the Isali farm close to Kalungu. They model farming methods and stewardship in order to ensure food security. Ask God to use their testimonies and service to break poverty mind sets and to restore families in the area. 29

Praise God for how He is revealing Himself to us. Honour Him for breaking through in our uncertainties with creative ideas and many opportunities to disciple the nations. Join us in "asking of Him for the nations for His inheritance." Ps. 2:8 30

Pray for the students who completed the DMT courses to be empowered to speak His word, to experience His miracle-working power and ask Him to keep them safe during times of testing and failure. 31
